October 25 - 48

My Dear Madam,

I have to thank you which I do most sincerely for the letter which you were so obliging as to write to me and also for the 'Liberty Bell' presented by you - to my sister Caroline and myself - I have once again the pleasure of forwarding a few articles from my sister and myself as a slight testimony

of the interest which we feel in our better still in bond - Then the bitter time which necessary domestic duties, allow me to give to reading any account of the proceedings in America, I should imagine that your prospects are cheering upon the whole - and most cordially do we write in wishing you and your noble coadjutors complete and speedy suc-cess - The Articles in the 'Liberty Bells' I always read with much interest I can only repeat

what I have said up-
- former occasions that you are most welcome to our
- humble efforts to aid your
- cause and be sincere
- Thank you - for the kind
- spirit in which you
- receive them - Pray you
- be firm it may be the last we
- shall send - owing to the advanced
- age and increasing infirmities
- of my parents we feel the <sup>regret</sup> <sup>repine</sup>
- with trembling while they are
- with us and the removal
- of the head of family al-
- ways makes such changes
- as to render future plans
- of usefulness & of very uncer-
- -tain accomplishment -
- The pleasure however of aid-

Slavery is my darling as well as all in such a cause as the abolition of Slavery has been great to me. I am - when I hear through my dear and excellent friend, Dr. Walker, that you are coming to London my heart quite beat, at the thought of my being able to see you but Miss Parker wishes and that you should be at that time in the city to talk and then meet to discuss - except my ardent wishes that all your wishes should be - your visit there has been accomplished and I am - me with most sincere respect and affection - ever yours
